

Professor David Miers of Cardiff University

I apologise for a late response; the University's demands are incessant, even in the summer!

I am content with the 'soft' approach you propose.

I am working on an article on the 'social responsibility' theme, which I will copy to the Commission when complete.